

Number Triangle Solution

The biggest number that each of the sides can add up to is 23.

One possible solution is shown above. There are other solutions as the numbers in the middle of each edge can be in the opposite order. The whole triangle could also be rotated around. Either way, though, the total of the numbers along each side must still equal 23!